
CITY BOUND EUROPE CHARTER

City Bound Europe Network is a long-term oriented partnership of non-governmental organizations from different parts of Europe using non-formal education and adventure-based learning methodology to build up an international community realizing common goals:

- 1. Consolidating solidarity, understanding, tolerance and cohesion among young people in Europe;*
- 2. Promoting active citizenship, voluntary work, responsibility and involvement of people by supporting their active participation and showing them tools to act;*
- 3. Raising awareness on common European culture, values, community, as well as European Citizenship, by strengthening sense of belonging to the society of Europe as a whole;*
- 4. Raising awareness on diversity in our societies among young people in Europe and building an inclusive attitudes based on respect, acceptance, and understanding of diversity;*
- 5. Consolidating non-formal learning (adventure-based learning in particular) as a method of working with young people, especially with fewer opportunities;*

We are a Network, living organism, growing and developing together using shared and accumulated knowledge, skills and attitudes, having adventure-based learning as a philosophy, social responsibility as an instrument, quality and impact as a guideline and living Europe as an aim.

What drive us and define us are:

- Logic of community: strong relationship, stability, solidarity and commitment;*
- Care for the quality and inclusion in our functioning, which means in particular great care for equal opportunities for our beneficiaries, support and care of every single individual which enables healthy personal growth and group development;*
- Ethical principles: respect, trust and partnership;*
- Using diversity, which is an integral part of our Network, as a learning opportunity and challenge necessary to grow.*

Our Network is build up on diversity of resources: expertise on sustainability, human rights, migration and racism issues, social dimension, and employability. Every partner brings into the Network specific heritage which constitutes the identity of the Network and provides a unique learning opportunity.
